Taxation of Private Corporations and Their Shareholders

Fourth Edition
Editors:
Paul Bleiwas
John Hutson

A Canadian Tax Foundation publication by Deloitte & Touche LLP
Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP
Taxation of Private Corporations and Their Shareholders

FOURTH EDITION

Detailed Contents

Chapter 1  Introduction: The Corporation as a Person in Tax Law
I. Introduction  1:1
   A. What Is a Corporation and What Is a Shareholder?  1:1
   B. Corporations and Pink Elephants  1:2
   C. Corporations and Legal Personality  1:2
II. The Nature of the Corporate Personality  1:3
   A. Legal Personality  1:3
   B. Corporate Personality  1:4
   C. The Nature of a Corporation  1:8
   D. The Corporate Capacity To Own Property  1:11
   E. Corporate Personality and Limited Liability  1:13
   F. Residence of a Corporation  1:13
   G. Impact of Tax Treaties  1:16
III. Shares and Shareholders  1:17
   A. The Nature of a Share  1:17
   B. Rule for Hybrid Securities  1:19
   C. Sham and the General Anti-Avoidance Rule  1:20
IV. Piercing the Corporate Veil  1:20

Chapter 2  The Decision To Incorporate
I. Introduction  2:2
II. Theory of Integration  2:4
   A. Background  2:4
   B. The Existing Integration Model  2:6
      1. Investment Income  2:6
      2. ABI Eligible for the SBD  2:6
      3. ABI Ineligible for the SBD  2:8
III. Integration: The Real Story  2:10
   A. Provincial Rates: Actual Versus Theoretical  2:10
      1. Provincial Personal Rates  2:10
      2. Provincial Corporate Rates on Investment Income  2:11
      3. Provincial Corporate Rates on Business Income  2:11
   B. Integration in Practice  2:11
      1. Investment Income  2:11
      2. Capital Gains  2:14
iv / Taxation of Private Corporations and Their Shareholders

3. Dividend Income 2:14
4. ABI Eligible for the SBD 2:16
5. ABI Ineligible for the SBD 2:16

IV. Advantages of Incorporation 2:17
A. Income Tax Deferral 2:17
1. Investment Income 2:17
2. ABI Ineligible for the SBD 2:18
3. ABI Eligible for the SBD 2:18
4. Ontario’s Clawback of the SBD 2:19

B. Enhanced Capital Gains Exemption 2:19

C. Income Splitting 2:22
1. Corporate Attribution Rules 2:23
2. Tax on Split Income 2:25
3. Income-Splitting Loans for Value 2:25
4. Family Trusts 2:26
5. Professional Corporations 2:26

D. Estate Freezes 2:27

E. Deductibility of Interest on Borrowed Funds 2:29
1. Loans to a Corporation 2:29
2. Subscription for Preferred or Common Shares 2:30
3. Borrowing to Acquire Dividend-Paying Securities 2:30

F. Reduction in Capital Gains 2:31

G. Principal-Business Corporations 2:32

H. Rules Concerning Restricted Farming Losses 2:33

I. M & P Credit 2:33

J. Scientific Research and Experimental Development Costs 2:34

K. Personal Minimum Tax 2:35

L. Holding Foreign Investments 2:35

M. Employee Ownership 2:36
1. Stock Options and Grants 2:36
2. RRSP Ownership 2:36

V. Disadvantages of Incorporation 2:37
A. Double Taxation on Death When Capital Losses Are Not Used 2:37
1. How Does Double Taxation Arise? 2:37
2. Alleviation of Double Taxation: Subsection 164(6) 2:41
3. A Second Alternative: “Partial” Subsection 164(6) 2:43

B. Unused Capital Dividend Account 2:46

C. Unused RDTOH Account 2:47

D. Taxable Income in Excess of the SBD 2:47

E. Trapped Non-Capital Losses 2:49

F. Expiration of Capital Losses on Acquisition of Control 2:50

G. Transferring Assets out of a Corporation 2:50
1. Transfer of Capital Assets with Accrued Gains 2:50
2. Transfer of Capital Assets with Accrued Losses 2:50
3. Transfer of Depreciable Properties 2:51

H. Dividend Distribution 2:52

I. Capital Tax 2:52
Chapter 3  Capitalizing a Corporation

I. Introduction  3:2

II. Types of Capital for Corporate and Income Tax Purposes  3:3
   A. Income Tax Share Capital  3:3
   B. Corporate Share Capital  3:3
   C. Corporate Debt  3:4
   D. Preferred Shares and Other After-Tax Financing  3:5
      1. The Preferred-Share Rules  3:5
         a. Term Preferred Shares  3:7
         b. Short-Term Preferred Shares  3:8
         c. Taxable Preferred Shares  3:10
   E. When Should a Corporation Be Capitalized by Shares or Debt?  3:12

III. Selecting the Capital Structure  3:15
   A. Estate Freezing: Reduction of Share Value  3:15
   B. Preservation of Income and Capital  3:15
   C. Income Splitting  3:16
   D. Control  3:16
   E. Pipeline to Capital  3:16
   F. Elimination of Benefits  3:17
   G. Deductibility of Interest on Borrowings Used To Subscribe for Capital  3:17
   H. Flexibility Without Adverse Income Tax Consequences  3:17

IV. Selecting the Share Structure  3:17
   A. The Importance of Share Rights and Restrictions  3:18
      1. The Valuation Dilemma: The CRA’s Concern  3:20
   B. Specific Share Characteristics  3:21
      1. The Right to Dividends  3:21
         a. Cumulative or Non-Cumulative  3:22
         b. Dividend Rate  3:23
         c. Tax-Free and Taxable Dividends  3:24
      2. Redemption and Purchase by a Corporation  3:25
      3. Retraction Rights  3:25
      4. Redemption Amount  3:27
      5. Voting Rights  3:28
      6. Limitation on Payment of Dividends on Common Shares  3:29
      7. Price Adjustment Clauses  3:30
8. Rights on Dissolution 3:31
9. Right of Conversion 3:31

V. Determining a Corporation's PUC 3:32
A. The Income Tax Concept of Paid-Up Capital 3:32
B. The Corporate Concept of Share Capital 3:33
C. The Corporations Statutes 3:38
D. Share Exchanges and Internal Reorganizations of Share Capital 3:39
   1. Alteration of Share Rights 3:39
   2. Exchange of Shares 3:39
   3. Changes to PUC 3:39
   4. Reallocating PUC 3:41

VI. Income Splitting Through Share Capital 3:41
A. The Concept of Income Splitting 3:41
B. Attribution Rules 3:42
   1. Legislative Background 3:43
   2. Property Versus Business Income 3:45
   3. FMV Transfers and Loans 3:46
   4. Transfers and Loans to Corporations 3:47
   5. Guarantees and Third-Party Loans 3:48
C. Indirect Payments and Benefits: Subsection 56(2) 3:48
   1. Neuman, McClurg, and Other Cases 3:48
   2. When Does Subsection 56(2) Apply? 3:50
D. The Tax on Split Income 3:53
E. GAAR 3:54

VII. Deductibility of Interest 3:55
A. Bronfman Trust and Proposed Subsection 20(3.1) 3:56
B. Subsequent Court Decisions 3:56
   Ludco Enterprises Ltd. 3:56
   Shell Canada 3:57
   Singleton 3:57
C. Current State of Interest Deductibility and the CRA's Administrative Views 3:57
D. Filling the Hole 3:58
E. Tracing 3:58
F. Exceptional Circumstances 3:59
G. Draft Legislation on Interest Deductibility 3:59
H. Other Provisions 3:60

Chapter 4  The Decision To Use a Holding Corporation
I. Introduction 4:2
II. Advantages Related to the Flow of Funds 4:2
III. Conversion to Deductible Interest 4:4
IV. Income Splitting and Estate Freezing 4:5
   A. Fair Value Consideration 4:6
   B. Interest Deductibility 4:8
   C. The Shareholder’s Future Growth Participation 4:8
   D. Alternative Freeze Method 4:8
   E. QSBC Status and Other Considerations 4:9
V. Considerations Related to Intercorporate Dividends  4:9
   A. Suspension of the Tax Effects of Dividends  4:9
   B. Creating Connected Corporations  4:10

VI. Multiple Ownership of a Holding Corporation 4:11

VII. Corporate Share Acquisitions 4:11
   A. Advantages to the Purchaser 4:11
      1. Purchaser Corporation Bears Acquisition Financing 4:11
      2. Target Corporation Bears Acquisition Financing 4:13
   B. Advantages to the Vendor 4:14
      1. Dividends to Holdco 4:15
      2. Redemption of Opco Shares 4:15
      3. Transfer to Purchaser for “High-Low” Shares 4:15
      4. Effect of Subsection 55(2) 4:15

VIII. Other Advantages 4:16
   A. Overcoming Double Taxation on Death 4:16
   B. Corporate Breakup and Distribution 4:16
   C. Avoidance of Employee-Shareholder Loan Provisions 4:16
   D. Updating of Losses 4:17
   E. Buy-Sell Arrangements 4:17
   F. Risk Management 4:17
   G. A Tax Deferral for Investments? 4:18
   H. Crystallizing the $750,000 Capital Gains Exemption 4:18
   I. Using a Holding Corporation To Own Real Property 4:19
   J. Acquiring a Canadian Corporation 4:19
      1. Bumping Up the Cost Base of Non-Depreciables 4:19
      2. Non-Resident’s Acquisition of a Canadian Business 4:20

IX. The Application of Section 84.1 on Share Transfers 4:21
   A. Section 84.1 4:21
   B. Prerequisites 4:22
   C. Application of Section 84.1 4:24
      1. Reduction of PUC 4:24
      2. Deemed Dividend 4:25
      3. Arm’s-Length ACB 4:25
   D. Mechanics of Section 84.1 4:27
   E. Circumstances in Which Paragraph 84.1(1)(b) Does Not Apply 4:27
   F. Non-Arm’s-Length Transfers 4:28
   G. Comments 4:29

Chapter 5 The Use of Professional and Personal Service Corporations

I. Introduction 5:2

II. Professional Corporations 5:3
   A. The Nature of a Profession 5:3
   B. Incorporating a Professional Practice 5:4
      1. Review of Relevant Legislation 5:4
         a. Provincial and Territorial Legislation Governing Professional Corporations 5:4
            i. Ontario 5:5
b. Relevant Federal Legislation 5:6
  i. GST/HST 5:6
  ii. Kiddie Tax 5:6

2. Income Tax Treatment of Professional Corporations 5:7

C. Professional Corporations for Athletes and Entertainers 5:7

III. Who Can Incorporate—and Claim the SBD?  5:8
A. SBD 5:8
B. The Basic Requirements 5:9
C. Entitlement to a Separate Small Business Limit 5:9
  1. Specified Partnership Income 5:9
  2. Personal Services Business 5:10
     a. Incorporated Employee 5:11
     b. Specified Shareholder 5:11
     c. Reasonably Regarded as an Officer or an Employee 5:11
        i. Common Law 5:12
        ii. CRA Policy 5:15
     d. Exceptions 5:16
        i. More Than Five Full-Time Employees 5:16
        ii. Amounts Received by an “Associated Corporation” 5:17
  3. Corporations Associated Through Subsection 256(2.1) 5:17
     a. The $500,000 Limit 5:17
     b. The Meaning of “Associated” and Section 256(2.1) Association Rules 5:17

D. The CRA’s Advanced Tax Rulings 5:18
  1. Incorporated Partnership Structure 5:21
  2. Unincorporated Partnership Structure 5:24

E. Other Challenges 5:26
  1. Taxing Income of a Professional Corporation in the Hands of the Professional 5:26

IV. Management and Executive Management/Personal Corporations 5:28
A. Management Business Corporations 5:28
B. Executive Management/Personal Service Corporations 5:29
C. Income Tax Treatment of EMCs 5:29
  1. Active Business Income 5:29
  2. Personal Services Business 5:30

V. Why Incorporate? 5:30
A. Advantages 5:30
  1. Protection Against Personal Liability 5:30
  2. Tax Benefits 5:32
     a. Tax Rates 5:32
     b. Tax Deferral 5:33
     c. Income Splitting 5:33
     d. Private Health Services Plans 5:34
     e. Club Dues and Fees 5:34
     f. Death Benefits 5:34
     g. $750,000 Capital Gains Exemption 5:34
     h. Changing the Cumulative Net Investment Loss Account 5:34

B. Disadvantages of Incorporating 5:35
  1. Losses 5:35
  2. Costs of Incorporating 5:35
  3. Administrative Difficulty 5:35
C. Other Available Structures To Limit Liability 5:35
   1. Trusts 5:35
   2. Limited Partnerships 5:36
   3. LLPs 5:36
VI. Conclusion 5:36

Chapter 6 The Small Business Deduction and Associated Corporations
I. Introduction 6:2
II. The Relevance of Association 6:3
III. The Federal SBD 6:5
   A. Eligibility 6:6
      1. Canadian Corporation 6:7
      2. Private Corporation 6:7
      3. Public Corporation 6:7
      4. Prescribed Venture Capital Corporation 6:8
      5. Direct or Indirect Control 6:8
   B. Active Business Income 6:8
      1. Ordinary Definition 6:8
      2. Pertaining To or Incident To 6:9
      4. Specified Investment Business 6:12
      5. Personal Services Business 6:16
      6. Specified Shareholder 6:16
   C. Carried On in Canada 6:16
   D. Calculation 6:17
   E. Sharing the Low Rate of Tax 6:18
IV. Associated Corporations 6:19
   A. The Effect of Association 6:20
   B. The Basic Rules 6:20
      1. Control of One Corporation by Another 6:21
      2. Control by the Same Person or Group of Persons 6:21
      3. Control by Related Persons 6:21
      4. Specified Class 6:23
      5. Control by One Person and a Related Group of Persons 6:25
      6. Control by Two Related Groups 6:26
      7. De Facto Control 6:27
   C. Related Persons 6:33
   D. The Extended Meaning of Control and Ownership 6:36
      1. Definition of “Group” 6:36
      2. Control by a Group 6:36
      3. The Fair-Market-Value Test 6:37
      4. The Lookthrough Provisions 6:41
         a. Holding Corporations 6:41
         b. Partnerships 6:42
         c. Trusts 6:44
      5. The FMV of Shares 6:48
      6. Parent Deemed To Own Shares 6:48
      7. Options and Rights 6:50
8. Exceptions for Financial Difficulty and Specified Class 6:54
9. Association with a Third Corporation 6:55
E. Association Overruled 6:59
1. Subsection 256(6) 6:59
2. Subsection 256(3) 6:60
3. Subsection 256(4) 6:61
4. Subsection 256(5) 6:61
5. Subsection 256(9) 6:62
F. Anti-Avoidance 6:63
1. The Objective of Subsection 256(2.1) 6:63
2. Criteria 6:64
3. Review of the Case Law Relating to Subsection 247(2) 6:65
V. The Corporate-Partnership Rules 6:67
A. Specified Partnership Income and the SBD 6:67
B. The Anti-Avoidance Provision 6:69
C. The Partnership Lookthrough Provision 6:69
D. Partnerships Controlled by Non-Residents or Public Corporations 6:69

Chapter 7 Remuneration of the Owner-Manager
I. Introduction 7:4
II. Capacity in Which Owner-Manager Is Remunerated: Shareholder or Employee 7:5
A. The Owner-Manager as Shareholder 7:5
B. Determining the Capacity of an Owner-Manager: Shareholder or Employee 7:6
C. Deductibility: Payments Received in the Capacity of Shareholder 7:8
D. Reasonableness of Payments 7:9
III. Salaries, Bonuses, and Management Fees 7:12
A. Introduction 7:12
B. Reasonableness of Salaries and Management Fees 7:12
C. The CRA’s Attitude to the Reasonableness Question 7:13
  1. Active Owner-Managers 7:13
  2. Non-Active Owner-Managers 7:14
  3. Non-Resident Owner-Managers 7:15
  4. Management Corporations 7:15
  5. Reasonableness and Investment Income 7:16
  6. Sale of Major Business Assets or Unusual Transactions 7:16
  7. Summary 7:17
D. Reasonableness and the Jurisprudence 7:17
E. Bonus Accruals 7:19
  1. Bonus and Contingent Liabilities 7:19
  2. Unpaid Amounts 7:21
  3. Impact on Source Deductions 7:21
IV. Salary or Dividends? 7:23
A. The Theory of Integration Under the Act 7:23
B. The Salary-Dividend Mix 7:24
  1. Salaries 7:24
  2. Dividends 7:26
  3. Maintaining Qualified Small Business Corporation Status 7:27
C. Flexible and Discretionary Dividend Distributions  7:28
  1. Waiver of Dividends  7:28
  2. Discretionary Dividends  7:29
  3. High-Low Preferred Shares  7:33
  4. Holding Corporations  7:33
  5. Corporate Partnership  7:33
  6. Special Shares  7:34

V. Benefits and Appropriations to Shareholders  7:34
  A. Payments to Shareholders: Subsection 15(1)  7:35
  B. Conferral of a Benefit  7:36
    1. Stock Dividends  7:36
    2. Rights To Acquire Shares  7:37
    3. Forgiveness of Loans  7:37
    4. Automobiles  7:37
    5. Additions or Improvements to a Shareholder’s Building  7:38
    6. Private Health Services Plan  7:38
    7. Commitment on Acquisition of Shares  7:39
    8. GST Impact  7:39
    9. Review of Selected Cases  7:40
  C. Amount or Value of the Benefit  7:42
    1. The CRA’s Assessing Practice  7:43
    2. Review of Selected Cases  7:43
    3. Administrative Relief for Sole-Purpose Corporation  7:47
  D. Other Applicable Provisions  7:48
    1. Subsection 69(4)  7:49
    2. Subsection 69(1)  7:49

VI. Loans to Shareholders and Employees  7:49
  A. Loans to Shareholders and Connected Persons: Subsection 15(2)  7:49
    1. Who Is Caught by Subsection 15(2)?  7:51
      a. Connected Persons  7:51
      b. Canadian Corporations  7:51
      c. Non-Shareholders  7:51
      d. Employees  7:51
      e. Others  7:53
    2. Loans and Indebtedness Excluded from Income  7:53
      a. Loans Between Non-Residents  7:53
      b. Loans or Indebtedness Made in the Ordinary Course of Business  7:53
      c. Non-Specified Employees: Paragraph 15(2.4)(a)  7:55
      d. Loans To Acquire a Dwelling: Paragraph 15(2.4)(b)  7:55
      e. Treasury Shares: Paragraph 15(2.4)(c)  7:57
      f. Automobiles: Paragraph 15(2.4)(d)  7:58
    3. Bona Fide Arrangements for Repayment  7:58
    4. Indebtedness Incurred Because of Employment  7:59
    5. Repayment  7:60
    6. Series of Loans and Repayments  7:60
    7. Repayments of Loan Previously Included in Income  7:62
    8. Meaning of “Loan or Indebtedness”  7:63
    9. Loans to Shareholders Under Corporate Law  7:63
10. Right of Setoff 7:63
B. Interest-Free and Low-Interest Loans: Section 80.4 7:64
1. Application of Section 80.4 7:64
2. Taxable Benefit and Exclusions 7:65
3. Home Purchase Loans 7:66
4. Home Relocation Loans 7:66
5. Relief for Income-Earning Loans 7:67
6. Relationship of Section 80.4 to Subsection 15(2) 7:68
7. Deductibility of Outside Financing Charges by Employer 7:68
VII. Other Benefits Available to an Owner-Manager 7:69
A. Company-Owned Automobiles 7:69
1. Applicability of Standby Charge 7:69
2. Restricted Deductions 7:70
3. Automobile Allowances 7:71
4. Implications for the Owner-Manager 7:72
B. Entertainment and Other Benefits 7:73
1. Club Memberships and Recreational Facilities 7:73
2. 50 Percent Restriction on Entertainment 7:74
3. Frequent Flyer Programs 7:75
C. Moving Expenses 7:75
D. Retiring Allowances 7:76
1. Meaning of “Retiring Allowance” 7:76
2. Determining the Amount of a Retiring Allowance 7:78
E. Death Benefit Programs 7:79
1. Tax-Free Receipt 7:79
2. Taxable Amounts 7:79
3. Qualifying Payments 7:80
VIII. Deferred Income Plans 7:81
A. Background on Pension Reform 7:81
B. RRSPs 7:82
1. Comprehensive Retirement Savings Limits 7:82
a. Unused RRSP Deduction Room 7:82
b. RRSP Dollar Limit 7:83
c. Earned Income 7:83
d. PA 7:84
e. The Factor of Nine 7:85
f. Net PSPA 7:85
g. PARs 7:85
2. Planning Considerations 7:86
a. Alternative to Pension Plans 7:86
b. Early and Excess Contributions 7:86
c. Spousal RRSPs 7:87
d. Group RRSPs 7:87
e. Children’s RRSP Deduction Room 7:87
C. RPPs 7:88
1. Registration 7:88
2. Pension Plans for Significant Shareholders 7:88
3. Designated Plans 7:89
4. RPP Contribution Limits 7:91
5. Maximum Retirement Benefits 7:93
6. Early Retirement 7:93
7. Past Service Contributions 7:94
8. IPPs Versus RRSPs 7:94
9. Advantages of an IPP 7:95
   a. More Tax Sheltering 7:95
   b. Protection if Plan Does Not Perform 7:95
   c. Creditor Proofing 7:95
   d. Suitability for Owner-Managers 7:96
   e. Maximum Benefits 7:96
10. Advantages of an RRSP 7:96
    a. Ability To Split Income 7:96
    b. Locking In 7:96
    c. Flexibility in Retirement Options 7:96
    d. Administration 7:96
    e. Early Termination 7:97
    f. Plan Surpluses 7:97
    g. Simplicity 7:97
    h. Flexibility in Annual Contributions 7:97
D. DPSPs 7:97
   1. Eligibility 7:98
   2. Contribution Limits 7:98
   3. Effect on RRSP Contributions 7:99
   4. Allocations and Vesting 7:99
   5. Taxation of Withdrawals 7:99
   6. Qualified Investments 7:101
E. Salary Deferral Arrangements 7:102
F. RCAs 7:103
G. Employee Benefit Plans 7:106

Chapter 8 Transferring Assets to a Private Corporation
I. Introduction 8:3
II. Transfers Pursuant to Section 85 8:3
   A. Who Can Use Section 85? 8:3
   B. Eligible Assets 8:3
      1. Non-Resident Transferors 8:4
      2. Real Property 8:4
   C. The Elected Amount 8:5
      1. General Limitations 8:6
      2. Specific Limitations 8:6
   D. Restrictions on the Consideration Received 8:7
      1. Benefit-Conferral Rules: Paragraph 85(1)(e.2) 8:7
      2. Valuation 8:9
      3. Consideration Received: Other Issues 8:11
   E. Selecting the Elected Amount 8:12
   F. Flowthrough of Income Tax Characteristics of Transferred Property 8:12
      1. Flowthrough of Cost for Depreciable Property: Subsection 85(5) 8:12
      2. Retention of CCA Characteristics 8:13
      3. Preserving the Tax-Free Zone: ITARs 26(5.2) and 20(1.2) 8:13
4. Surplus Accounts: Foreign Affiliates 8:13
5. Loss of Flowthrough of Tax Characteristics: The 50-Percent Rule 8:13
G. Consequences to the Transferee Corporation 8:14
   1. CCA 8:14
   2. Income or Capital 8:14
H. Implications of Non-Income Tax Legislation 8:15
   1. Goods and Services Tax 8:15
      a. Election Under ETA Section 167 8:16
      b. Election Under ETA Section 156 8:16
      c. Sale of Receivables 8:17
def. Transfer of Real Property 8:17
e. Sale of Shares 8:17
   2. Provincial Sales Tax 8:17
   3. Land Transfer Tax and Fees 8:18
   4. Canada Pension Plan 8:18
I. The Stop-Loss Rules 8:18
   1. Non-Depreciable Property 8:18
   2. Depreciable Property 8:19
      a. Application 8:19
      b. Effect 8:19
c. Ordering 8:20
   3. Anti-Avoidance Rules: Subsections 69(11) to (14) 8:20
J. Form of Consideration Received 8:21
   1. Extracting the Cost Base 8:21
   2. Extent to Which Paid-Up Capital Should Be Created 8:22
   3. The Effect of Section 84.1 8:24
   4. Restrictions on Paid-Up Capital 8:25
      a. Disposition of Shares by a Non-Resident: Section 212.1 8:25
      b. Amalgamations 8:25
K. Transfer from a Partnership 8:25
   1. Cost of Non-Share Property Received 8:26
   2. Cost of Preferred Shares Received 8:26
   3. Cost of Common Shares 8:26
   4. Proceeds of Partnership Interest 8:27
   5. Disposition of Partnership Property 8:27
L. Filing Requirements 8:27
   1. Who Files? 8:27
   2. Filing Deadline 8:28
   3. Mistakes 8:28
   4. Late and Amended Elections 8:28
   5. Valuation Problems 8:29
   6. Description of Property 8:30
M. Section 116 Clearance Certificates 8:31
N. The General Anti-Avoidance Rule: Section 245 8:32
III. Transfers Outside Section 85 8:34
   A. Claiming Reserves 8:34
   B. When an Election Under Section 85 May Not Be Advisable 8:34
      1. Available Losses 8:34
      2. Use of Section 85.1 8:34
IV. Accounting Ramifications 8:35
Appendix 8:36
Checklist for a Subsection 85(1) Rollover 8:36
   General 8:36
   Requirements 8:36
   Assets 8:37
   Paid-Up Capital 8:38
   V-Day 8:38
   Employees 8:38
   GST and Provincial Taxes 8:38
   Non-Residents 8:38
   Other Consequences of Election 8:39
   Election 8:39

Chapter 9 Removing Assets from a Private Corporation
I. Introduction 9:4
II. Appropriations of Corporate Property to Shareholders 9:4
   A. Tax Consequences to the Corporation: Subsection 69(4) 9:4
   B. Tax Consequences to the Shareholder: Subsection 15(1) 9:5
   C. Price Adjustment Clauses 9:6
   D. Shareholder Appropriations as Dividends 9:7
      2. Tax Consequences of a Dividend to an Individual 9:7
   E. Capital Dividends 9:7
      1. The Capital Dividend Account 9:7
      2. Payment of a Capital Dividend 9:10
   F. Transfers for Less Than FMV Consideration 9:10
III. Winding Up a Corporation 9:11
   A. Subsection 69(5) 9:11
   B. Subsection 84(2) 9:12
   C. Subsection 88(2) 9:12
   D. Adjustments to the Capital Dividend Account 9:14
   E. Pre-1972 CSOH 9:15
   F. Timing 9:16
   G. Additional Comments 9:16
IV. Intercorporate Dividends 9:17
   A. The Use of Intercorporate Dividends To Reduce Capital Gains 9:18
      1. The Purpose Test 9:20
      2. Significant Reduction 9:22
      4. Part IV Exception 9:24
      5. Effect and Timing of a Subsection 55(2) Assessment 9:25
   B. The Concept of Safe Income 9:26
      1. Definition 9:28
      2. Income Earned or Realized 9:28
      3. Portion of Gain Attributable to Income 9:30
      4. Losses 9:32
      5. Holding Period 9:33
6. Shares Acquired on a Rollover 9:33
7. Safe Income That Relates to Fixed-Value Preference Shares 9:33
   a. Acquired on a Rollover 9:34
   b. Implications for Common Shares 9:36
   c. Access to Safe Income 9:37
8. Stock Options and Splits 9:37
9. Stub Period 9:38
10. Consolidation of Safe Income 9:38
11. Income Earned Before 1972 9:40
12. Separate Dividend Designation 9:40
13. Allocation of Safe Income to Different Shares 9:41
14. Additional Comments 9:43
C. When Subsection 55(2) Does Not Apply 9:44
D. Series of Transactions or Events 9:45
E. Share Redemptions 9:48
V. The Paragraph 55(3)(a) Exemption 9:49
   A. Unrelated Persons: Timing of Relationship 9:49
   B. Significant Increase in Total Direct Interest 9:49
   C. First Type of Triggering Event: Disposition of Property to an Unrelated Person 9:51
   D. Second Type of Triggering Event: Significant Increase in the Interest of an Unrelated Person 9:54
   E. Third Type of Triggering Event: Disposition of Shares of the Dividend Payer 9:54
      1. Disposition of Shares of the Dividend Payer 9:54
      2. Disposition of Property That Derives Its Value from Shares of the Dividend Payer 9:55
   F. Fourth Type of Triggering Event: Disposition of Shares of the Dividend Recipient 9:57
      1. Disposition of Shares of the Dividend Recipient 9:57
      2. Disposition of Property That Derives Its Value from Shares of the Dividend Recipient 9:58
      3. After the Time the Dividend Was Received 9:58
   G. Fifth Type of Triggering Event: Significant Increase in the Direct Interests in the Dividend Payer 9:59
H. Interpretation Rules for Paragraph 55(3)(a) 9:60
   I. Continuity Rule Under Paragraphs 55(3.01)(b) and (c) 9:61
   J. Presumption Under Paragraph 55(3.01)(d) 9:62
   K. Paragraph 55(3.01)(e) 9:63
   L. Application Rules for Paragraph 55(3)(a) and Subsection 55(3.01) 9:65
   N. The Department of Finance's Responses to Paragraph 55(3)(a) Uncertainties 9:67
VI. Butterfly Reorganizations 9:68
   A. Basic Steps 9:69
   B. The Use of Subsection 85(1) 9:69
   C. The Application of Subsection 55(2) 9:71
   D. Failure To Comply with Paragraph 55(3)(b) 9:71
      1. Capital Dividend Account 9:72
      2. Refundable Dividend Tax on Hand 9:73
      3. Safe Income 9:73
E. Dividends to Which Paragraph 55(3)(b) Applies  9:74
   1. The Meaning of “Reorganization” 9:75
   2. The Meaning of “Distribution” and “Direct or Indirect Transfer” 9:77
   3. The Types of Butterflies and Other Requirements Under Paragraph 55(3)(b) 9:79
      a. Spinoff Butterfly (Single-Winged) 9:79
      b. Split-Up Butterfly (Single-Winged) 9:79
      c. Split-Up Butterfly (Multi-Winged) 9:80
F. The Pro Rata Test 9:81
G. Types of Property 9:84
   1. Investments in Other Corporations 9:85
   2. The Impact of Liabilities 9:86
H. Certain Rules That Affect Share Transactions 9:87
   1. Transactions That Affect Shares of the Distributing Corporation Before the Butterfly Distribution 9:87
      a. Reorganization of Capital 9:87
      b. Transfer of Shares of a Distributing Corporation to a Transferee Corporation 9:88
      c. Redemption of Shares of a Specified Class and Permitted Exchange That Involves Shares of a Specified Class 9:90
   2. Transactions That Affect Shares of the Distributing and Transferee Corporations After the Butterfly Distribution 9:92
   3. Sequential Butterfly 9:94
I. Application of Subsection 55(3.1) 9:95
      a. The Meaning of “Property Became Property Of” 9:96
      b. The Meaning of “In Contemplation Of” 9:97
      c. Exceptions 9:98
         i. Subparagraph 55(3.1)(a)(i) 9:98
         ii. Problems with subsection 251(3.1) 9:99
         iii. Subparagraph 55(3.1)(a)(ii) 9:100
         iv. Subparagraph 55(3.1)(a)(iii) 9:100
         v. Clause 55(3.1)(a)(iv)(A) 9:101
         vi. Clause 55(3.1)(a)(iv)(B) 9:102
         vii. Clause 55(3.1)(a)(iv)(C) 9:103
   2. Paragraph 55(3.1)(b): Demise of the Purchase Butterfly 9:103
      a. Subparagraph 55(3.1)(b)(i) 9:106
      b. Subparagraph 55(3.1)(b)(ii) 9:107
      c. Subparagraph 55(3.1)(b)(iii) 9:108
      d. Paragraph 55(3.2)(h) 9:110
   3. Paragraphs 55(3.1)(c) and 55(3.1)(d): Continuity of Interest in the Properties 9:111
J. Other Butterfly-Related Issues 9:112
   1. Part IV Tax and RD TOH 9:112
   2. Parts IV.1 and VI.1 9:113
   3. The Capital Gains Exemption 9:114
Chapter 10  Transferring Share Ownership to Employees or Other Shareholders

I. Introduction 10:2

II. Non-Tax Issues Concerning Equity Participation 10:3
   A. Minority Interests 10:3
   B. Lack of a Secondary Market 10:3
   C. Financing Aspects 10:4

III. Employee Stock Option Plans 10:4
   A. The Advantages of Stock Option Plans 10:5
   B. The Income Tax Implications of Stock Option Plans 10:5
      1. Application of Paragraphs 110(1)(d) and (d.1) 10:6
      2. Transfers and Dispositions of Stock Options 10:7
      3. Death of an Employee Who Owns a Stock Option 10:8
      5. Cost Base Considerations 10:9
      6. Miscellaneous Points Regarding Section 7 10:9
   C. Non-Residents and Stock Options 10:13
   D. Stock Option Plans Granted by CCPCs 10:16
   E. Potential Tax Trap with Stock Options 10:17

IV. Employee Share Purchase Plans 10:18
   A. The Income Tax Implications of Financing Arrangements 10:18
      1. Loans Received by Shareholders or Employees 10:19
      2. When Share Values Decrease 10:22
   B. Corporate Law Considerations 10:25
   C. Creation of Special Shares for Employees 10:25
      1. Convertible Equity and Convertible Debt 10:25
      2. Freeze Shares 10:26
      3. The $750,000 Capital Gains Exemption 10:26

V. Phantom Stock Purchase Plans 10:27

VI. Transferring Equity Through a Reorganization 10:29
   A. Corporate Joint Venture 10:29
      1. Is It a Partnership? 10:29
      2. The Nature of the Employee Corporation 10:30
   B. Creation of a New Corporation 10:30

VII. Alternative Arrangements 10:31
   A. Purchase Through a Holding Corporation 10:31
      1. Application of Subsection 7(1.1) 10:31
      2. Application of Subsection 15(2) 10:32
      3. Application of Section 80.4 10:32
   B. Purchase Through Family Members 10:33
   C. Purchase Through a Registered Retirement Savings Plan and a Deferred Profit-Sharing Plan 10:34

Chapter 11  Alternative Buy-Sell Arrangements for Shareholders of Private Corporations

I. Introduction 11:2

II. Alternative Buyout Arrangements: An Overview 11:3
   A. Purchase by Other Arm’s-Length Shareholders 11:3
B. Purchase by Target Corporation 11:4
C. Estate of Deceased Shareholder  11:5

III. Funding a Buy-Sell Agreement 11:5
A. Cash Savings of the Parties  11:6
B. Sinking Fund Contributions  11:6
C. External Financing of the Share Purchase  11:6
D. Retarding the Growth and the Value of the Shares  11:6
E. Life Insurance  11:6
F. Combination of Insurance and Current Earnings  11:7
G. Payment over Time  11:7
H. Sale of Assets  11:7

IV. The Effect of a Shareholders’ Agreement on the Valuation of a Corporation’s Shares 11:8
A. Some Basic Considerations  11:8
B. Position of the CRA: IT-140R3 and IC 89-3 11:8
C. The Position of the Courts  11:10
D. Alternatives When the Buy-Sell Price Is Less Than FMV 11:12
   1. Subsection 164(6)  11:12
   2. Spousal Rollover 11:13
   3. Price Adjustment Clause 11:14
E. Corporate-Owned Life Insurance  11:14

V. The $750,000 Capital Gains Exemption for Qualified Small Business Corporation Shares 11:16
A. QSBC Share Defined  11:16
B. The Holding-Period Tests 11:18
C. The Effect of Corporate-Owned Insurance on QSBC Status 11:19
D. Subsection 110.6(8) 11:20

VI. Shares That Are Purchased for Cancellation 11:20
A. Advantages 11:21
   1. Cash Flow Saving When Insurance Funding Is Used  11:21
   2. Mitigation of Insurance Cost Inequalities 11:21
   3. Simplifying the Agreement  11:21
   4. Potential Reduction of Income Tax on Death  11:21
      a. The Pre-1995 Tax Regime 11:22
      b. The Current Tax Regime 11:23
   5. Payment over Time  11:25
B. Potential Disadvantages and Traps 11:26
   1. Insufficient CDA 11:26
   2. Capital Gains Exemption Not Used 11:26
   3. Potential Denial of Capital Losses  11:26
   4. Timing of Share Purchase 11:27
   5. Shares with a Low PUC and a High ACB 11:27
   7. Realizing the Capital Loss 11:28
   8. Insurance-Related Issues 11:28

VII. Survivor Buyout Shareholders’ Agreements 11:29
A. Tax Consequences to the Deceased Shareholder and the Estate 11:29
B. Tax Consequences to Surviving Shareholder  11:29
C. Tax Consequences to an Operating Corporation  11:30
Chapter 12  Tax Considerations in Buying or Selling a Business

I. Introduction  12:6
   A. Assets Versus Shares  12:6
      1. Some Important Issues  12:6
      2. Biases  12:7
   B. Corporate Rollovers To Defer Tax  12:12
      1. Introduction  12:12
      2. Illustration of Corporate Rollovers  12:13
      3. Some General Comments on Corporate Reorganizations  12:13
      4. Section 85: Transfer of Property to a Corporation  12:14
      5. Section 85.1: Share-for-Share Exchange  12:14
         a. Conditions Necessary for Section 85.1 To Apply  12:14
         b. Tax Treatment of the Vendor  12:15
         c. Tax Treatment of Acquireco  12:15
         d. The CRA’s Administrative Practices  12:16
      6. A Section 85.1 Share-for-Share Exchange Versus a Subsection 85(1) Transaction  12:17
      7. Section 86: A Reorganization of Share Capital  12:17
      8. A Statutory Amalgamation (Section 87) Versus the Windup of a Wholly Owned Subsidiary (Subsection 88(1))  12:18
         a. Application  12:18
         b. Tax Results Generally  12:18
         c. Legal Feasibility  12:18
         d. Bumping Non-Depreciable Assets Under Subsection 88(1)  12:19
         e. The Meaning of “Control” When a Chain of Corporations Is Acquired  12:20
         f. Possible Taxable Capital Gains  12:21
         g. Taxation Year  12:21
         h. When a Property Is Treated as a Capital Property  12:22

II. Collecting the Necessary Information  12:8

III. The Purchase and Sale of Shares  12:9
   A. Using Holding Corporations To Make an Acquisition  12:9
      1. Deductibility of Interest on Money Borrowed To Buy Shares  12:10
      2. Deductibility of Interest Incurred To Redeem Shares  12:10
      3. Interest Expense: Maximizing the Value of the Deduction  12:11
      4. Unnecessarily Increasing Provincial Capital Taxes  12:11
      5. Scientific Research and Experimental Development  12:12
      6. Provincial Allocation  12:12
   B. Corporate Rollovers To Defer Tax  12:12
      1. Introduction  12:12
      2. Illustration of Corporate Rollovers  12:13
      3. Some General Comments on Corporate Reorganizations  12:13
      4. Section 85: Transfer of Property to a Corporation  12:14
      5. Section 85.1: Share-for-Share Exchange  12:14
         a. Conditions Necessary for Section 85.1 To Apply  12:14
         b. Tax Treatment of the Vendor  12:15
         c. Tax Treatment of Acquireco  12:15
         d. The CRA’s Administrative Practices  12:16
      6. A Section 85.1 Share-for-Share Exchange Versus a Subsection 85(1) Transaction  12:17
      7. Section 86: A Reorganization of Share Capital  12:17
      8. A Statutory Amalgamation (Section 87) Versus the Windup of a Wholly Owned Subsidiary (Subsection 88(1))  12:18
         a. Application  12:18
         b. Tax Results Generally  12:18
         c. Legal Feasibility  12:18
         d. Bumping Non-Depreciable Assets Under Subsection 88(1)  12:19
         e. The Meaning of “Control” When a Chain of Corporations Is Acquired  12:20
         f. Possible Taxable Capital Gains  12:21
         g. Taxation Year  12:21
         h. When a Property Is Treated as a Capital Property  12:22
i. The Paragraph 88(1)(d) Bump and Pre-Acquisition Dividends 12:22
j. Maximizing the Paragraph 88(1)(d) Bump 12:22
k. Property Ineligible for the Paragraph 88(1)(d) Bump 12:23
l. Preventing the Backdoor Butterfly: Paragraph 88(1)(c.3) 12:23
   i. Example 1 12:24
   ii. Example 2 12:24
m. Pre-Acquisition Planning 12:25

9. Tendering Shares of One Corporation for Shares of Another Corporation:
   Section 85.1 Versus Subsection 87(9) 12:25
   a. Section 85.1 12:26
   b. Subsection 87(9) 12:26

10. Corporate Tax Instalments 12:26
    a. Short Fiscal Period 12:27
    b. Amalgamations 12:27
    c. Windups 12:27
    d. Transfers 12:27

11. When the Vendor Is Prepared To Take Back Shares 12:27

12. Reducing a Capital Gain Through a Tax-Free Intercorporate Dividend 12:28

14. Pre-Sale Dividends and Safe Income 12:30

C. An Instalment Sale: Deferring Taxable Gains by the Vendor 12:30

D. QSBC Shares and the Lifetime Capital Gains Exemption 12:33
   1. The 24-Month-Holding-Period Test 12:33
   2. The Qualified-Assets Test 12:34
      a. Direct Ownership 12:34
      b. Indirect Ownership 12:35
   3. Planning Strategies 12:35
   4. GAAR and QSBC Shares 12:36
   5. Safe Income Exemption Versus the Capital Gains Exemption 12:36
   6. Purchase of Shares from Retiring Shareholders 12:37

E. Capital Gains Deferral for Eligible Small Business Shares: Section 44.1 12:38

F. Proper Timing of an Acquisition 12:39
   1. Timing of Acquisition and Disposition 12:40
   3. ABIL in a Share Redemption 12:41

G. Why a Non-Resident Acquiror Should Consider Using a Holding Corporation
   To Make an Acquisition 12:42
   1. Thin Capitalization 12:42
   2. The Use of a Quebec Financing Corporation 12:43
   3. Exchangeable Shares: Exchanging Canadian Shares for Foreign Shares on a Tax-Deferred Basis 12:43
   4. The Death of the Cross-Border Butterfly 12:44
   5. Non-Resident Share Acquisition Structuring 12:44
   6. Unlimited Liability Corporation 12:45
   7. Minimizing Canadian Taxes on the Disposition of a Canadian Subsidiary:
      A Capital Gains Strip 12:45
   8. Minimizing Canadian Taxes on the Disposition of a Canadian Subsidiary:
      Changing Residence of Vendor 12:46
9. Dispositions by Non-Residents and Exposure to Provincial Taxes and Double Taxation 12:46
10. Structuring Acquisitions by Non-Residents and Capital Taxes 12:47
11. One Approach to Avoiding Problems Under Section 212.1 12:47

H. The SBD: Financing an Acquisition Through a Reduced Tax Burden 12:48
1. The Saving Provision in Section 256 12:48
2. Financing an Acquisition Through Tax Savings 12:48

I. Salary to the Vendor Under a Personal Services Contract: Tax Considerations 12:49

J. Financing an Acquisition Through a Retiring Allowance 12:49
1. Retiring Allowance Defined 12:50
2. Tax Deferral 12:50
3. Deduction at Source 12:50

K. Upgrading of Pension Plans 12:51

L. Terminated Employees and Retirement Compensation Arrangements 12:51

M. Unexercised Stock Option Rights and Corporate Takeovers 12:51

N. When Shares of a Target Corporation Are Held by the Target’s DPSP 12:52

O. “Underwater” Loans to Employees 12:52

P. Change of Control of a Loss Corporation 12:53

Q. Debt Parking in Acquisition of Shares and Debt 12:53

R. Reverse Takeovers: Tax Considerations 12:53

S. Warranty Payments Arising Under the Purchase Agreement 12:54

IV. The Purchase and Sale of Assets 12:54

A. Allocating the Purchase Price in a Bulk Asset Purchase 12:54
1. Section 68 and the Allocation of Purchase Price 12:55
2. Instalment Sale Reserves: How To Optimize the Purchase Allocation 12:56

B. Tax Consequences of Selling a Business for Instalments Carrying No Apparent Interest 12:57

C. Accounts Receivable: Making a Section 22 Election on Transfer 12:57

D. Sale of Inventory 12:59
1. Instalment Sale: Allocation to Inventory 12:59

E. Depreciable Property 12:60
1. Recapture of CCA 12:60
2. Capital Gains and Losses 12:60
3. Recapture of Depreciation: Is It Active Business Income? 12:60
4. Property Used in More Than One Business: An Increased Exposure to Recapture 12:61
5. Regulation 1103(1): A Special Election To Avoid Recapture 12:61
6. Changes in CCA Classes 12:62
10. Class 13: Leasehold Interests 12:63
11. The Available-for-Use Rule 12:64
12. The Replacement-Property Rules 12:64
F. Valuation of CCA Claims 12:65
G. Intangible and Eligible Capital Property 12:67
   1. Depreciable Versus Non-Depreciable Intangibles 12:67
   2. ECEs Defined 12:67
   3. Goodwill as an ECE 12:67
   4. Disposal of Eligible Capital Property 12:68
   5. Recapture of Eligible Capital Amount as Active Business Income 12:68
   6. Capital Dividend Account and Disposition of Eligible Capital 12:68
   7. Bad Debts Arising from the Sale of Eligible Capital Property 12:68
   8. Amount Not Due Until a Later Year in Respect of Eligible Capital Property 12:69
   9. Eligible Capital Property and the Replacement-Property Rule 12:69
H. Capital Property Other Than Depreciable Property 12:69
   2. The FMV of Publicly Traded Securities: ITAR 26(11) 12:70
   3. Tax Treatment of Capital Gains and Capital Losses 12:70
   4. Instalment Sales of Capital Property 12:71
   5. Life Insurance Policies 12:71
I. Prepaid Expenses 12:71
   1. Administrative Practice 12:71
   2. Deferred or Prepaid Expenses 12:72
   3. Consistency Desired: Changes Permitted 12:72
J. Reserves, Foreign Exchange, and Settlement of Debt 12:72
   1. Reserves and Warranties 12:72
   2. Foreign Exchange Gains and Losses 12:73
   3. Debtor's Gain on Settlement of Debt 12:73
K. Deferring Taxation Through Sections 99 and 25 12:74
L. Taxation Year Planning 12:74
M. The CDA: Be Very Careful 12:75
V. Other Considerations 12:76
   A. Dividends Versus Capital Gains: Which Should a Shareholder Choose? 12:76
      1. Some General Observations 12:76
      2. Deemed Dividends Versus Capital Gains for Shareholders of Acquired Corporations 12:77
      3. Squeezing Out the Minority Shareholders in a Takeover 12:77
      4. Dissenting Shareholders: Tax Treatment 12:78
   B. Price Adjustment Clauses 12:79
      1. Purpose 12:79
      2. Interpretation Bulletin IT-169 12:79
      3. Effect of IT-169 on Price Adjustment Clauses 12:80
      1. General Considerations in Structuring an Earnout 12:81
      2. Different Approaches to an Earnout 12:81
         a. The Base-Period Earnout 12:82
         b. The Increment Earnout 12:82
         c. The Cumulative Earnout 12:82
         d. The Reverse Earnout 12:82
      3. Tax Issues 12:83
      4. Tax Treatment of Shares Sold Subject to an Earnout Agreement 12:84
D. Non-Competition Clauses  12:87
   1. Default Income Inclusion: Subsection 56.4(2)  12:87
   2. Non-Application of Section 56.4  12:88
      a. Employment Income Exception: Paragraph 56.4(3)(a)  12:88
      b. Asset Sale Exception: Paragraph 56.4(3)(b)  12:88
      c. Share Sale Exception: Paragraph 56.4(3)(c)  12:90
   3. Reasonable Allocation of Purchase Price to Restrictive Covenant: Section 68  12:91
      a. Exceptions to Application of Section 68  12:91
         i. Employee-Provided Covenant Exception: Subsection 56.4(6)  12:92
         ii. Goodwill Amount Exception: Subsection 56.4(7)  12:92
         iii. Disposition of Property Exception: Subsection 56.4(8)  12:94
      b. Capital Gains Election: Subsection 56.4(9)  12:95
   4. Treatment of the Purchaser  12:96
   5. Anti-Avoidance Rules  12:96
   6. Clarification Rules  12:97
   7. Filing Prescribed Form  12:97
E. Structures to Consider  12:99
   1. Incorporating a Division: An Alternative to a Purchase and Sale  12:99
F. Interest and Other Financing Costs  12:100
   1. Interest Expense  12:100
   2. Expenses of Issuing Shares and Borrowing Money  12:103
   3. When the Parent Borrows  12:105
   4. Aborted Financing  12:105
   5. Withholding Tax  12:105
   6. Purchase and Sale of Shares  12:106
   7. Purchase and Sale of Assets  12:106
   8. Appraisal Costs  12:106
   9. Tax Treatment of Costs Incurred in Resisting a Takeover  12:107
G. Tax Treatment of Interest on the Purchase Price  12:108
H. Discounts and Premiums on Corporate Debt  12:109
I. Dispositions of Capital Property by Non-Residents  12:110
   1. Taxable Canadian Property  12:110
   2. Liability of Purchaser in Certain Cases  12:111
   3. Disposition of Taxable Canadian Property by Non-Residents  12:112
J. How To Use RRSPs To Assist in Acquiring a Business  12:115
VI. Tax Clauses in Acquisition Agreements  12:115
VII. Application of GST to the Purchase and Sale of a Business  12:117
   A. Special Elections  12:117
   B. The Application and Impact of GST  12:118
   C. Financial Institutions and Other Exempt Users  12:118
   D. Application of Retail Sales Tax to the Purchase and Sale of a Business  12:119
VIII. Shares Versus Assets: An Example  12:119
Chapter 13  Utilization of Corporate Losses

I. Introduction 13:3
   A. Ordering of Deductions 13:3
   B. Losses: Some General Comments 13:3

II. Non-Capital Losses 13:4
   A. Carryover of Non-Capital Losses 13:4
   B. Using Non-Capital Losses To Reduce Part IV Tax 13:5
   C. Using Foreign Tax Credits While Increasing Non-Capital Losses 13:6
   D. Ontario Harmonization's Impact on Non-Capital Losses 13:6

III. Net Capital Losses 13:6

IV. Allowable Business Investment Losses 13:7

V. Acquisition of Control: Impact on Losses Carried Forward 13:10
   A. Introduction 13:10
      1. Sale of Current-Year Losses 13:10
      2. ABILs and Property Losses 13:10
      3. Sale of Accrued but Unrealized Losses 13:11
   B. When Does an Acquisition of Control Occur? 13:11
   C. Changes in Ownership That Are Deemed Not To Be an Acquisition of Control 13:12
      1. The Transfer of Loss Corporations Within a Related Group 13:13
      2. Change in Executor 13:14
      3. Distribution to a Beneficiary 13:14
   D. Circumstances in Which an Acquisition of Control Is Deemed To Occur 13:14
   E. Restrictions on Losses That Arise on an Acquisition of Control 13:15
      1. Deemed Year-End on an Acquisition of Control 13:15
      2. Effect of an Acquisition of Control on the Carryover of Net Capital Losses 13:16
      3. Effect of an Acquisition of Control on the Carryover of Non-Capital Losses 13:17
      4. Reasonable Expectation of Profit 13:18
      5. Depreciable Property 13:19
      6. Eligible Capital Property 13:19
      7. Additional Tax Implications 13:20

VI. Offsetting Profits and Losses Within a Related Group 13:20

VII. Amalgamations: Flowthrough of Losses 13:20
   A. General Comments 13:20
   B. Timing Problems: Effective Date of Amalgamation 13:21

VIII. Liquidations: Flowthrough of Losses 13:22

IX. Other Loss-Consolidation Strategies 13:24
   A. Group Loss-Consolidation Techniques 13:24
      1. Transfer of Assets Within an Affiliated Group 13:24
      2. Transfer of a Profitable Business Within an Affiliated Group 13:26
      3. Implementation of Intercorporation Charges 13:26
      4. Transfer of a Profitable Business to a Partnership 13:26
      5. Preferred Share/Loan Transactions 13:27
   B. Preserving Losses 13:28
      1. Revising Discretionary Deductions 13:28
      2. Other Loss-Preservation Strategies 13:29
X. Other Loss-Restricion Rules 13:30
   A. Using Third-Party Losses on Asset Sales: Subsection 69(11) 13:30
   B. Restrictions on Transferring CCA to a Third Party: Subsection 13(24) 13:31
   C. Loss-Denial Provisions 13:31
XI. Debtor’s Gain on Settlement of a Debt: Preventing Taxpayers from Avoiding a Forgiveness 13:33
   A. Overview of the Debt-Forgiveness Rules 13:33
   B. Implications of the Debt-Forgiveness Rules 13:33
   C. Debt Parking 13:34
XII. When To Recognize Capital Debts Established To Be Bad Debts 13:35
XIII. Loan Guarantees and Non-Interest-Bearing Loans: Deductibility of Debts Gone Bad 13:36
   A. Capital or Income Loss 13:36
   B. Deductibility of Interest on Funds Borrowed To Honour a Guarantee 13:38
XIV. Nil Assessments: Confirming the Amount of Available Losses 13:40
XV. Carrying Back Losses 13:42
XVI. The Impact of Bankruptcy on Losses 13:42
XVII. How Dividends Received May Reduce the Amount of a Loss 13:43
   A. Shares That Are Capital Property 13:43
   B. Shares That Are Non-Capital Property 13:44
XVIII. Taxable Preferred Share Financing 13:44
   A. Term Preferred Shares 13:45
   B. Guaranteed Shares 13:46
   C. Collateralized Preferred Shares 13:46
   D. Taxable Preferred Shares 13:46
   E. Additional Points To Be Noted 13:48
XIX. Limited Partnership Losses 13:49
XX. A Review of the Concept of Control 13:49
   B. Review of the Jurisprudence 13:50
   C. Control by a Group of Persons 13:58
   D. The CRA’s Position 13:59
   E. Summary of the Current Law 13:60

Chapter 14 Provincial and Territorial Taxation of the Private Corporation
I. Constitutional Power 14:3
II. History of Provincial Taxation 14:4
III. Differences in Provincial and Territorial Tax Rates 14:5
   A. Overview 14:5
   B. The SBD 14:5
      1. Ontario 14:6
      2. Quebec 14:6
   C. Manufacturing and Processing Deduction 14:6
   D. Provincial and Territorial Tax Holidays 14:6
      1. Overview 14:6
         a. Newfoundland and Labrador 14:7
         b. Nova Scotia 14:7
c. Ontario 14:7
d. Quebec 14:8

2. General Planning for Tax Holidays 14:8

IV. Allocating Taxable Income Among Federal and Provincial or Territorial Jurisdictions 14:10

A. Significance of Permanent Establishment 14:10
   1. Federal Taxation 14:10
   2. Provincial/Territorial Taxation 14:10

B. Definition of “Permanent Establishment” Under the Federal Regulations 14:11

C. The Allocation of Income to a Permanent Establishment 14:13
   1. What is Included in “Salaries and Wages Paid”? 14:14
   3. Where Should the Gross Revenue Be Allocated? 14:16
   4. Double Taxation 14:17

D. Allocation of Investment Income 14:17

V. Provincial and Territorial Income Tax Differences: An Overview 14:18

A. Scientific Research and Experimental Development 14:19

B. M & P Tax Incentives 14:19
   1. Manitoba 14:20
   2. Newfoundland and Labrador 14:20
   3. Nova Scotia 14:20
   4. Ontario 14:20
   5. Prince Edward Island 14:20
   6. Quebec 14:20
   7. Saskatchewan 14:21
   8. Yukon 14:21

C. CCA 14:22
   1. CCA in Year of Acquisition 14:22
   2. Computation of Capital Cost 14:22
      a. Ontario 14:22
      b. Quebec 14:22

D. Non-Residents’ Withholding Taxes 14:22

E. Charitable Donations 14:23

F. Political Contributions 14:23

G. Availability of Non-Capital Losses 14:23
   1. Alberta 14:24
   2. Quebec 14:24

H. Planning with Non-Capital Losses 14:24

I. Loss Carryforward or Carryback in the Year of Startup or Shutdown 14:25

VI. Other Provincial and Territorial Tax Credits 14:25

A. Political Contributions 14:25

B. Film, Television and Media Incentives 14:26

C. Venture Capital and Small Business Financing Incentives 14:27
   1. Labour-Sponsored Venture Capital Corporations 14:27
   2. British Columbia Venture Capital Tax Credit 14:27

D. Alberta 14:28

E. British Columbia 14:28
   1. Logging Tax Credit 14:28
2. Mining Exploration Tax Credit 14:28
3. Book-Publishing Tax Credit 14:28

F. Manitoba 14:29
1. Book-Publishing Tax Credit 14:29

G. Ontario 14:29
1. Cooperative Education Tax Credit 14:29
2. Apprenticeship Training Tax Credit 14:29
3. Book-Publishing Tax Credit 14:29
4. Ontario Mineral Exploration Program 14:30

H. Quebec 14:30
1. On-the-Job Training Tax Credit 14:30
2. Design Credits 14:30
3. Book-Publishing Tax Credit 14:30

I. Saskatchewan 14:31

VII. Ontario Corporate Minimum Tax 14:31

VIII. Payroll Tax 14:32
A. Newfoundland and Labrador 14:33
1. Meaning of “Employee” and “Employer” 14:33
2. “Remuneration” and “Establishment” 14:33

B. Manitoba 14:34
1. Meaning of “Employee,” “Employer,” and “Remuneration” 14:34
2. Meaning of “Permanent Establishment” 14:34

C. Ontario 14:35
1. Meaning of “Employee” 14:35
2. Meaning of “Employer” 14:36
3. “Permanent Establishment” 14:36

D. Quebec 14:36
1. Meaning of “Employee,” “Employer,” and “Wages” 14:37
2. Meaning of “Establishment” 14:37
3. Quebec Vocational Training Tax 14:37

E. Northwest Territories 14:37
1. Meaning of “Employee,” “Employer,” “Remuneration,” and “Fixed Place of Business” 14:38

F. Nunavut 14:38

IX. Elective Provisions 14:38
A. Interprovincial Asset Transfers 14:39

X. Provincial General Anti-Avoidance Rules 14:39
A. Alberta 14:39
B. British Columbia 14:39
C. Manitoba 14:39
D. Ontario 14:40
E. Quebec 14:40
F. Saskatchewan 14:40

XI. Provincial Capital Tax 14:40
A. Overview 14:40
B. Determination of Taxable Capital 14:41

XII. Provincial and Territorial Recognition of Canada’s Tax Treaties 14:41
Chapter 15  Passage of Shares of a Private Corporation on Death

I. Introduction 15:2
II. The Trustee’s Discretionary Powers 15:3
   A. Discretionary Powers and the Rules of Equity 15:3
      1. The Prudent-Person Rule 15:4
      2. The Even-Hand Rule 15:5
   B. The Fales Case 15:5
   C. Billes: The Canadian Tire Case 15:6
   D. The Rules of Equity 15:8
III. The Estate’s Holding of Private Corporate Shares 15:9
   A. Trustee’s Duty To Be Appointed Director 15:9
   B. Trustee’s Duties as Trustee and as Director 15:9
   C. Trustee’s Duties as Trustee and as Shareholder 15:10
   D. Selection of Beneficiaries 15:11
   E. Distribution of Corporate Earnings: Income or Capital? 15:11
   F. Duty Not To Profit 15:14
   G. Some Income Tax Considerations 15:15
      1. Residence of Trust 15:15
      2. Associated Corporations 15:15
   H. Delegation of Administrative Powers 15:16
IV. Farm Corporation Rollover 15:16
V. Spousal Rollover 15:17
   A. Requirements for Rollover 15:18
   B. Meaning of “Vested Indefeasibly” 15:19
   C. Untainting the Spousal Rollover 15:19
VI. Income Tax Elections 15:19
VII. Term of the Trust 15:20
   A. The 21-Year Rule 15:20
   B. The Rule Against Perpetuities 15:20
   C. The Rule Against Accumulations 15:21
VIII. Conclusion 15:21

Chapter 16  Tax Planning and Tax Avoidance

I. Introduction 16:3
II. Common Types of Avoidance Transactions 16:5
   A. Benefits and Loans to Shareholders 16:6
   B. Indirect Payments or Transfers 16:9
   C. Attribution of Income (Imputed Interest Income) 16:12
   D. Indirect Transfer of Value 16:12
   E. Bumping the Cost Base of Property (Including Shares) 16:14
      1. Paragraph 69(1)(a) 16:15
      2. Paragraph 13(7)(e) and Subsection 14(3) 16:15
      3. Section 84.1 16:15
   F. Creating Losses 16:16
      1. Subsection 40(3.4) and Subsection 14(12) 16:16
      2. Subsection 13(21.2) 16:17
3. Subsections 112(3) to (3.32) 16:18
4. Subsections 112(4) to (4.22) 16:19

G. Increasing PUC 16:19
1. Subsection 84(1) 16:19
2. Section 84.1 16:20
3. Subsection 85(2.1) 16:20

H. Converting Capital Gains into Intercorporate Dividends: Subsection 55(2) 16:21

I. Lifetime Capital Gains Exemption 16:21
1. Converting Corporate Capital Gains into Individual Capital Gains:
   Subsection 110.6(7) 16:22
2. Increasing Value by Dividend Blocking: Subsection 110.6(8) 16:22
3. Circumventing the 24-Month Rule: Paragraph 110.6(14)(f) 16:23
4. Former Subsection 245(1.1) and GAAR 16:23

J. Laundering Gains: Subsection 69(11) 16:24

III. Specific Statutory Avoidance Tests 16:24

A. The Purpose Test 16:25
1. Introduction 16:25
2. The Canadian Approach 16:26
   a. “Principal Purpose” 16:28
   b. “One of the Main Purposes” 16:29
   c. “One of the Purposes” 16:30

B. The Reasons Test 16:32
C. Principal Business 16:34
D. The Reasonableness Test 16:35
E. The Deeming Test 16:36
F. The “Knowingly” Test 16:37

IV. Judicial Anti-Avoidance Doctrines 16:37

A. What Is Tax Avoidance? 16:38
B. Judicial Doctrines 16:41
   1. Business-Purpose Test 16:41
   2. Sham 16:44
   3. Incomplete Versus Illegal Transactions 16:47
      a. Incomplete Transactions 16:47
      b. Illegal Transactions 16:49
   4. Agency 16:54
   5. Piercing the Corporate Veil 16:56
   6. Step Transactions 16:57
      a. What Is a Composite Transaction? 16:60
      b. The Step Transaction Doctrine in Canada 16:60
   7. Abuse of Law 16:65
   8. Object and Spirit 16:66
   9. Substance over Form 16:69
      b. Substance over Form in Canada 16:71
C. Conclusions 16:74

V. GAAR: Canada’s Answer to Tax Avoidance 16:75

A. Introduction 16:75
B. Analysis of Section 245  16:77
   1. The Coming-into-Force Provisions  16:77
   2. The “Charging” Provision: Subsection 245(2)  16:77
   3. The McNichol and RMM Canadian Cases  16:77
      a. McNichol  16:78
      b. RMM Canadian  16:78
      c. Comments on McNichol and RMM Canadian  16:79
   4. The Tax Benefit Definition: Subsection 245(1)  16:81
   5. The Definition of Tax Consequences: Subsection 245(1)  16:82
   6. The Definition of Avoidance Transactions: Subsection 245(3)  16:82
      a. Bona Fide Purpose  16:83
      b. Meaning of “Purpose”  16:84
      c. Primary Purpose  16:85
      d. Non-Tax Purpose  16:85
      e. Series of Transactions  16:86
   7. Misuse or Abuse  16:88
      a. Background  16:88
      b. Is Subsection 245(4) a Rule of Interpretation?  16:89
      c. Is Subsection 245(4) an Exempting Provision?  16:90
      d. The CRA’s Position  16:91
      e. When Should Subsection 245(4) Be Applied?  16:91
      f. What Do the Terms “Misuse” and “Abuse” Mean?  16:91
      g. Interpretive Approach  16:92
      h. Selected Supreme Court of Canada Cases  16:93
         i. Selected Cases Decided by Other Courts  16:97
   8. Determination of Tax Consequences  16:102
      a. Recharacterizing the Transaction  16:102
      b. Applying for a Determination  16:103
      c. Third-Party Adjustments  16:104
C. Application of GAAR: A Summary  16:105
   1. Conceptual Application of GAAR  16:105
   2. The GAAR and Specific Anti-Avoidance Rules  16:105
   3. Judicial Considerations  16:106
      a. General Rules of Statutory Interpretation  16:106
         i. The use of extrinsic materials as interpretive aids  16:107
      b. Onus of Proof  16:109
   4. The Department of Finance’s Approach  16:109
   5. The CRA’s Approach  16:111
      a. GAAR Assessments and Rulings  16:111
      b. Information Circular 88-2 and Supplement I  16:112
   6. Selected Jurisprudence  16:113
      a. GAAR Assessments Upheld  16:113
      b. GAAR Assessments Overturned  16:114
D. Planning for GAAR  16:116
   1. Developing Tax Plans  16:116
   2. Documenting Transactions  16:117
   3. Warranties and Indemnities  16:117
Chapter 17  Scientific Research and Experimental Development and Investment Tax Credit Incentives

I. Introduction 17:3
   A. History of the Program 17:3

II. The Incentives 17:3
   A. Deduction 17:3
      B. ITCs: A Two-Tiered System 17:4

III. Filing Requirement 17:4

IV. Definition of SR & ED 17:5
   A. Carried On in Canada 17:6
   B. Deduction of SR & ED Expenditures 17:7
      1. Salaries or Wages of Employees 17:7
         a. Incurred 17:8
         b. Computation of Salaries or Wages Under the Proxy and Traditional Methods 17:8
         c. Specified Employees 17:9
         d. Work Performed Outside Canada 17:10
         e. Unpaid Salaries or Wages 17:10
      2. Contract Payments 17:10
      3. Third-party Payments 17:12
      4. Materials 17:12
      5. Leases 17:13
      6. Election for Overhead 17:13
         a. Proxy Election 17:13
         b. Traditional Method 17:14
         c. Expenditures Directly Attributable to SR & ED 17:15
      7. Capital Expenditures 17:16

V. Concept of Pooling SR & ED Expenditures 17:17
   A. Components of the SR & ED Pool 17:17
   B. Acquisition of Control 17:18

VI. ITCs for Qualifying SR & ED Expenses 17:19
   A. General Rules 17:19
   B. Eligibility for the 35 Percent Small Business Credit Rate 17:19
   C. Refundable ITC 17:21
      1. Qualifying Corporation 17:21
      2. Qualified Expenditures 17:22
      3. Refund on SR & ED Credits 17:22
   D. Anti-Avoidance Provisions 17:22
   E. Qualifying Expenditures 17:22
      1. General 17:22
      2. Prescribed Proxy Amount 17:23
      3. Prescribed Current Expenditures 17:24
      4. Prescribed Capital Expenditures 17:24
a. Capital Assets Available for Use 17:25
5. Government and Non-Government Assistance 17:25
6. Contract Payments 17:27
7. Unpaid Amounts 17:28
F. Shared-Use Capital Equipment 17:28
G. Subcontracting Payments to Non-Arm’s-Length Parties 17:29
H. Recapture of SR & ED Credits on the Sale or Conversion of Property 17:30
VII. Offsetting Refund Against Other Taxes 17:33
VIII. Assignment of ITCs to Third Parties 17:33
IX. Carryover of ITCs 17:34
A. Reorganization of Corporations Through Amalgamation and Windup 17:34
B. Acquisition of Control 17:34
X. Partnerships and ITCs 17:35
A. Filing Due Dates 17:35
B. Specified Members of a Partnership 17:36
C. Allocation of Unused ITCs 17:36
XI. Provincial and Territorial Incentives 17:37
A. Ontario 17:37
1. Ontario Innovation Tax Credit 17:37
2. Ontario Business-Research Institute Tax Credit 17:38
3. Ontario Research and Development Tax Credit 17:39
4. Harmonization Between Federal and Ontario SR & ED Regimes 17:40
B. Alberta R & D Tax Credit 17:41
C. British Columbia R & D Tax Credit 17:41
D. Manitoba R & D Tax Credit 17:42
E. New Brunswick R & D Tax Credit 17:42
F. Newfoundland and Labrador R & D Tax Credit 17:43
G. Nova Scotia R & D Tax Credit 17:43
H. Prince Edward Island Innovation and Development Tax Credit 17:43
I. Quebec Credit for R & D Wages 17:44
J. Saskatchewan R & D Tax Credit 17:44
K. Yukon R & D Tax Credit 17:45
Appendix 1: Organizations Designated as Eligible Research Institutes for the Purposes of the OBRI Tax Credit 17:45
A. Ontario Universities 17:45
B. Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology 17:45
C. Ontario Centres of Excellence 17:46
D. Networks of Centres of Excellence 17:46
E. Hospital Research Institutes 17:47
F. Other Organizations 17:48
Appendix 2: Case Study 17:48

Chapter 18 Dividend Taxation: The Eligible Dividend Regime
I. Introduction 18:2
II. Impact on Shareholders 18:3
A. Federal Tax Treatment 18:3
B. Provincial and Territorial Tax Rates 18:3
III. Impact on Corporations 18:4
   A. Eligible Dividends 18:5
      1. Definition of “Eligible Dividend” 18:5
      2. Designation Requirement 18:5
      3. Administrative Guidance 18:5
   B. Part III.1 Tax and the EEDD 18:7
      1. Tax and Designation 18:7
      2. Status of Corporation 18:7
      3. Calculation of Tax 18:7
      4. Anti-Avoidance 18:7
      5. Shareholder Liability 18:8
      6. Election for Separate Dividend 18:8
      7. Corporate Filing Obligation 18:9
   C. GRIP 18:9
   D. LRIP 18:11
IV. Examples 18:11
   A. GRIP 18:12
   B. LRIP 18:13
V. Implications in Selected Situations of Interest 18:14
   A. Basics of the Opening GRIP Calculation: Transitional Relief 18:14
   B. Asset Sale Versus Share Sale 18:16
   C. Non-Resident Shareholders 18:17
   D. Subsection 55(2) and GRIP 18:18
   E. CCPC Status Changes 18:18
      1. GRIP of a New CCPC 18:19
      2. LRIP of a New Non-CCPC 18:19
   F. Impact of Losses 18:19
   G. Election Not To Be a CCPC 18:20
   H. Selected Observations About CCPCs 18:20
VI. Conclusion 18:21